Let there be rousing turn outs at all the above places of the friends of Old Abe.

Mr. Hayes on Douglas.

As the shortest way of answering Mr. S. S. Hayes' present utterances we publish this morning his opinions of Mr. Douglas—including observations on the Nebraska bill, the Kansas outrages and the Extension of Slavery—delivered at South Market Hall just three years ago. The point of chief interest in this document is a foreshadowing of the Dred Scott decision as something in the last degree infamous and deplorable. Mr. Hayes has now pretty nearly boxed the compass. When he has given his views of Dred Scott in full and shown how blessed a thing it is to have men in the Senate who endorse it, we will refer to his meanderings again.

The "Wagon Boy" of Ohio Coming to Illinois.

The Cincinnati Gazette assures us that the Hon. Thomas Corwin, the faithful friend of Henry Clay, and the Republican Congressman elect from the 7th District in Ohio, has consented to address the people of Illinois at several places, between this time and the November election, in behalf of the Republican cause.

Gov. Chase at Rockford.

The Winnebago tribe has not had a meeting this campaign. Gov. CHASE, of Ohio, will be there to talk to the 3,000 Republican majority of that glorious county on next Wednesday. Let the tribe all be on hand, for there will be a feast of reason and a flow of soul.

Woodstock, Freeport, Galena, Take Notice!

Cassius M. Clay, advertised to speak in the above named places, is detained at home by sickness. It will be impossible for him to fill his appointments. This is to be regretted, but the disappointment is beyond control.

Great Meeting at Warren.

Gov. Chase, of Ohio, will address the people of Stephenson and Jo. Daviess Counties at Warren, on Thursday, Oct. 28th. The reputation and real ability of this distinguished speaker will ensure a great crowd. Speaking will commence at two o'clock P. M.

Hon. Henry S. Lane.

This able political orator has accepted an invitation to speak at the Republican mass meeting at Bloomington, in this State, on the 23d. He is one of the most eloquent men on the stump, as many will remember who heard him during the Henry Clay and Zachary Taylor Presidential campaigns. He will also address other meetings in this State before the election.

A Monster Meeting at Mendota.

Mendota is a capital place for a grand mass meeting. Gov. Chase will be there on Friday, Oct. 29th, to address the people of four counties. Boys, can't you turn out 10,000 people to hear the eloquent Buckeye Governor make a speech that will do you all good? Turn out and hear the big gun.

Iowa Election.

The result on Congress is still in some doubt in Iowa. We have returns from twenty counties in Curtis' District. The loss and gains about equal each other and leave the chances with Curtis.

Ohio Election—20,000 Republican Majority.

The Cincinnati Gazette of the 18th has report from 72 counties, giving the majorities on the State ticket, which foot up as follows:

Forty six Republican counties	27,826.
Twenty-six Democratic counties	10,092.
Rep. maj. in 72 counties	17,734.

The remaining sixteen counties will increase this majority to over 20,000, being a gain of over 18,000 on the vote for Governor last year.

Indiana Legislature.

Senate—Republicans, 25; Anti-Lecompton Democrats, 4; Democrats, 21.
House—Republican, 51; Anti-Lecompton Dem., 8; Democrats, 39. Seven Districts to hear from.

Karl Schurz at Quincy—An Enthusiastic Demonstration.

[From the Republican, 16th.]

On Wednesday night, the Court House was literally jammed with people—a large number of whom were Germans—who had assembled to listen to Mr. Karl Schurz, one of the most distinguished German speakers in the West. He first addressed his countrymen in their own language; and from the repeated and enthusiastic applause which he received throughout his address, we judge that our German friends were well pleased with it.

Mr. Schurz also spoke in English. We published, a few days ago, the speech delivered by him at Chicago. It was a most admirable and eloquent effort—and was read with much interest by all. His speech on Wednesday night fully came up to our expectations. He is worthy to be a champion of our glorious cause. Mr. Schurz was frequently interrupted, during his remarks, by bursts of applause from the large audience.

At the conclusion of his speech, the Republicans formed in procession, with torchlights, banners and transparencies, and marched through the principal streets. Many of the houses were illuminated. It was one of the largest demonstrations of the kind that ever took place in this city. In the course of the evening, speeches were made by Col. Jackson Grimshaw and Capt. Ben. Prentiss. We did not hear them ourself, but we take it for granted they were good. In this connection, we wish to call attention to the fact that Capt. Prentiss, in a spirit worthy of the man, worthy of the cause, and worthy of imitation by all Republicans, has devoted much of his time to this campaign. He has received many invitations to speak in this and adjoining counties, and he has gone wherever it was possible for him to go—and he has not relinquished the field yet. The Republicans ought to remember, with lively feelings of gratitude, his services in this canvass. If we had hundreds of such men, it would not be long before this whole District would be redeemed.

Population of Iowa Towns.

The population of the towns named below has been estimated from the number of votes cast in each at the late election:

Dubuque	18,670
Davenport	15,880
Muscatine	8,600
Burlington	10,590
Keokuk	12,763

The Court House and Jail at Dunnville, Dunn Co., Wis., together with all the records and books of the County, were destroyed by fire on the 15th.

"Abraham Lincoln and his Doctrines."

We desire again to put our friends on the guard against an anonymous and piratical pamphlet entitled, "Abraham Lincoln and "his Doctrines—Examined and Presented in "a Condensed Form from his own Speeches "and the Proceedings of his Friends." In general appearance it bears the imprint of the penitentiary, and its contents in detail should subject the author to solitary confinement. The clumsiness of the work will largely interfere with its intended damage, but we learn that it has been showered upon the central counties like a return of the seventeen-year locusts. It is made up of a series of shameful mutilations of Mr. Lincoln's speeches, spiced with lies taken from the Chicago Times. Indeed, it bears all the marks of parentage in the Times office. No other establishment could have vented so much meanness and mendacity in so small a space. Let our friends look out for them everywhere.

Those Mutilated Reports.

Editors Press and Tribune:

In the course of my travels through the State, I have heard it repeatedly asserted by Douglas men, that the reason why Lincoln's speeches appeared to so much better advantage in the PRESS & TRIBUNE than they do in the Chicago Times, is because they are "dressed up" and "improved" by you editors before they are printed. If this be true, and Lincoln should be defeated, I would respectfully suggest, for your benefit and that of the party, that the ablest man in your editorial corps, or the one who "dresses up" and "improves" Lincoln's speeches, be nominated and run as the next Republican candidate for the U. S. Senate.

Yours truly, T. U. W.

Gov. Denver.

Gov. Denver arrived at St. Louis on Saturday evening, from Kansas. The Missouri Republican says he does not contemplate returning to the Territory again, and that the Territorial Secretary will perform the duties of Governor, until the President fills the vacancy.

Fatal Accident.

A sad accident occurred in tht family of Jas. L. Loop, Esq., of Rockford, on Sunday evening last, the particulars of which we copy from the Democrat of that place:

"The family had eaten supper and retired to the family room, and two sons, Matt. and Frank, engaged in the boyish sport of "playing soldier." Matt. had in his hands a shot gun which had lain in the house several months, uncapped, and as every one supposed, unloaded; which during the progress of the play he aimed at his brother and pulled the trigger, when it discharged, putting the whole load into the forehead of Frank, who stood not more than two feet distant from the muzzle of the gun. The horror-stricken brother caught the poor boy in his arms, while the brains rapidly oozed from the horrible wound, and in an hour and a half he was dead. Frank was a very intelligent and sprightly lad of about 11 years, and idolized by his parents. This terrible calamity in Mr. L.'s family has produced a deep shock to our citizens, who deeply sympathize with them in their great affliction."

Jackson Grimshaw.

From every county in this District, we have glad and cheering news of the progress of the campaign, and the prospects of the election of Jackson Grimshaw to Congress. He is winning golden opinions from the people, and the people are going to vote for him in November. The election of Jackson Grimshaw is now fixed a fact, if the Republicans will work until the day, and then turn out in their full strength.—Quincy Rep., 16th.

THE CITY.

BLUE ISLAND.—On Thursday next, there will be a Republican Mass Meeting at Blue Island, in this county. The meeting will be addressed by Hon. John F. Farnsworth, Francis A. Hoffman, John Wentworth and A. C. Hesing.

RECORDER'S COURT.—The case of John L. Coates for forgery occupied yesterday.

ARRIVAL FROM LIVERPOOL.—On Tuesday night the bark Black Hawk from Liverpool, arrived at this port, after a long voyage.

CITY MORTALITY FOR SEPTEMBER.—The mortality in the several Divisions of the city for the month of September, was as follows:

South Division	80
North Division	60
West Division	92
Total	238

INSTALLATION SERVICES.—Rev. N. L. Rice, D. D., will be installed pastor of the North Presbyterian Church this evening at 7½ o'clock. The services will be conducted by Rev. R. H. Richardson and Rev. Mr. Farris, of Rockford. At the same time several ruling elders will be installed.

MURDERER ARRESTED.—On Monday night a man named Ephraim J. Young, was arrested at the Merchant's Hotel upon a dispatch from Officer Pollock, of Galesburg, charged with having broken jail in that city, where he was confined upon a charge of murder. Young formerly ran an engine upon one of the railroads running out of this city. Latterly he kept a saloon at Galesburg, and is charged with having caused the death of a man in his employ as a clerk.

The affair took place a year since, and Young has been most of the time out on bail. He claims to be able to prove that the death resulted from no agency of his, (unless it was his liquors) the man who deceased suddenly having died from delirium tremens.

LOOK OUT FOR HER.—It is said the girl Elizabeth Henderson is at her old tricks again for which some months since she was arrested, of looking for board and stealing from the houses thus entered. At the time of her arrest, her case was taken up by some philanthropists who thought they could reclaim her, and consequently provided her a good home in the country.

We understand that all has been in vain. Within the past week, two families on Congress street have been victimized by her. From one place she stole a lot of clothing and eighteen dollars in money. From the other some articles of apparel, a breast-pin and ear-rings, and a few other articles of jewelry. We would advise all to look out for the good looking young girl hunting for a boarding house, and calling herself Anna Wilson or Elizabeth Henderson.

BURGLARIES.—A few nights since the house formerly occupied by Dr. Kimberly, 138 Wabash avenue, was entered by burglars, and a valuable diamond pin and $45 in cash were stolen. A lot of clothing was brought down stairs and rifled of everything valuable. A fine gold pencil was dropped on the floor and left. Mr. C. W. Wells, the occupant of the house, was not at home at the time. The burglars effected an entrance through the piazzi window on the first floor.

On Sunday night the house of E. Woods, corner of Michigan avenue and Twelfth street, was entered by means of a pair of "outsiders." The burglars ransacked every nook and corner on the first floor and carried off a number of valuable articles, including a hat belonging to J. R. Walworth; also a very valuable mosaic pin—taking out the stone which they left behind. On the second floor a person was attending a sick child, yet so noiselessly was the job done that no one was disturbed.

SUPPOSED LOSS OF THE SCHOONER ROMAN AND ALL HER CREW.—The schooner Roman, Captain Wheeler, of Oswego, is supposed to have foundered during the severe gale of the 7th inst, on Lake Erie, all hands perishing. She sailed from Detroit with a cargo of wheat, bound for Oswego, on the 5th, and has not since been heard from. Thus passes away a somewhat remarkable vessel. She was built about the year 1842, by Sylvester Doolittle, Esq., at Oswego, N. Y., as a propeller, and called the Oswego, and was the pioneer of a line running from there to nearly all Western ports. She was the first propeller ever built upon these Lakes, and in fact one of the first built to run in open waters, upon Ericsson's plan.

This class of steam vessels, now so numerous, were then stigmatized as the "Oswego humbugs." In 1852 or '53, the Oswego was razeed and rebuilt into the schooner Roman, by her original owner, and has since been employed in the grain trade as one of the "Red Fleet," belonging to Messrs. Doolittle, Irwin & Wright, of Oswego, until the present season.

Some of the old residents of Chicago will remember the sensation produced at her first appearance here, some sixteen years ago, when first built. Since then what a change—now a large portion of the trade is by propellers, carrying loads five to six times her capacity.

THE COSMOPOLITAN BAZAAR—THE MINISTRY AT LARGE.—Few of our city readers, and not a few throughout the Northwest, have failed to become aware that for the past year, Rev. W. H. Hadley has ably and well executed the important duties of the Ministry at Large, instituted and sustained by the Unitarian societies of our city, and which has been the agency of a vast amount of good to the poor and homeless of Chicago.

Mr. Hadley has had for the past twelve months a large parish, the territorial verge of which has followed the entire line of our city limits, and with his warm heart, and experienced and keen perception, suiting to each case its needs, he has visited his multifarious flock with never ceasing proofs of his skill and wisdom, to relieve, to aid, to guide, and to reprove. He has not fed nor encouraged the accretion of idle hordes of vagrants, waiting and clamoring to be fed in their idleness, but his hand has been extended to aid all permanently if possible, the homeless to homes, the friendless to friends, the starving to support and plenty through labor.

A hard winter is approaching, and Mr. Hadley has just entered upon his second year of labor. At the outset and just at this time, when evening entertainments are attractive, willing hands and excellent skill and taste are transforming, as we saw yesterday, Metropolitan Hall into a world in miniature.

The Cosmopolitan Bazaar is to be inaugurated this evening, and it will be a novelty and a pleasing—we hope to add a profitable one, since its proceeds are to be devoted to the support and sustaining of the Ministry at Large the coming winter.

The design we only wish now to state in brief, as presenting the nationalities of the world—here the Asiatic in his booth, surrounded by his wares, yonder the German, the French, the Scotch, Irish, and the Yankee—all occupying their several booths, stalls and shops, faithful in their decorations, wares and dealers to the several national characteristics.

The Bazaar will remain open for three days and evenings, and will present other attractions than those named, which deserve to draw, as they must draw a crowd.

CHICAGO THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY—INAUGURATION OF PROFESSORS.—A Triennial Convention, composed of Pastors and Delegates from the Congregational Churches of the Northwest, will open this morning at 9 o'clock, in the First Congregational Church, corner of Washington and Green streets, West Side, for the purpose of electing Directors and Visitors for the Chicago Theological Seminary, and of deliberating upon the general interests of the institution. All friends of Theological education are invited to attend.

This evening, at 7½ o'clock, in the First Baptist Church, corner of Washington and Lasalle streets, Rev. Joseph Haven, recently Professor in Amherst College, will deliver his inaugural address as Professor of Doctrinal Theology.

Also, to-morrow evening, at the same time and place, Rev. S. C. Bartlett, now of the New England Church in this city, will deliver his inaugural as Professor of Biblical Literature.

THE RAWSON CASE.—This interesting case, particulars of which have appeared from time to time in our paper, has just been decided before Judge Paine, at Milwaukee, Wisconsin. The trial has been a complicated one, and has happily resulted in a decision against the child's immoral mother. The little girl thus is to remain in the charge of Mr. Roberts, a decision that is causing universal satisfaction in our sister city where a very general interest had been awakened in the case, which will best be recalled by our readers as that in which the girl was taken from the custody of a notorious woman, at the Briggs House.

☞ We have witnessed the operation of the Vesper Gas Light now on exhibition at the Tremont House in this city, and we are satisfied that it has all the merits claimed for it by the proprietors, namely, that it will compete directly with coal gas in its present limits; and is a perfect substitute for it elsewhere. As to the cost of using it, we are assured by the proprietors that it is much more economical than any other light before the public. We would advise all interested in the subject to call at the Tremont House and decide upon the merits of the Vesper Gas Light for themselves.

"SHAVE, SIR."—It is rumored about town, and somewhat discountedly by some of the victims, that a late venturesome enterprising personage, anxious to erect a Lake Shore Bath and Barber shop for the cleansing of our entire population, unwilling to await the consent of the City Fathers to the erection of that structure, has been getting a little fancy shaving done, and made off with the proceeds, possibly to the family tune of "High Betty Martin." Several holders of bogus drafts are the losers.

SWEET POTATOES.—We have to acknowledge the receipt of a most generous supply of sweet potatoes from our friend "Rural"—Hon. M. L Dunlap, of Urbana. They are delicious, decidedly so. Our excellent friend will please accept our grateful thanks.

WHERE SHALL THE DEPOT BE?—The question is narrowed down into two points of application, that the Union Depot shall be located between Madison and Adams, or between Madison and Randolph streets. Now what are the relative merits of those two locations? First, the ground south of Madison street can be purchased for about $360,000, while that north of Madison street will cost about $250,000 more, making a trifle over $600,00 as the cost of the depot grounds.

It will not be claimed by any one that the cheapest location has any other advantage than its lower price. It is farther from the geographical and commercial center of the city, and not as well located as that is between Madison and Randolph streets.

So far as the railroad center can be made consistently to conform to the other interests of the city, so far it should be done. Three of the principal roads, viz: the Fond du Lac, Milwaukee, and Galena, have large depot grounds north of Lake street, and they could manage to get along with less ground for a passenger depot than were they otherwise situated. This fact would make the two blocks between Canal street and the river and north of Madison, sufficient for the immense passenger business which must culminate at whatever point all the roads of Chicago unite.

There are already eleven trunk roads which enter the city. These must all, sooner or later, unite, and bring all their passengers into the Central West Side Depot. Of this there cannot be a question. Suppose then that the north side of Madison street does cost $600,000. The rental for each road to pay, even at ten per annum, would be only six thousand dollars—mere flea bite" when compared with the great advantage of such a central position. I can but believe that the railroads will select the ground between Madison and Randolph street.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

Foreign News by the Anglo Saxon.

QUEBEC, Oct. 19.—A careful examination of our files by the Anglo Saxon, gives little additional news of interest.

Later advices from Lady Franklin's Arctic yacht Fox, mention that the expedition had safely crossed the middle ice of Baffin's Bay, and was now in a fair way of accomplishing the object of the enterprise.

The London Times says that all appearances indicate that the present Atlantic Cable must be given up, and hopes that the experience gained will be used to insure that success which is finally certain. It admits the great superiority of the Niagara over the Agamemnon, and thinks that a ship should be especially constructed for the laying of the cable.

It was said that Sir Bulwer Lytton, prompted by the Canadian ministry, now in England, was giving special attention to the plan for the federation of the British colonies.

The London Shipping Gazette is informed that Lord Barry leaves Galway in a vessel for British North America, with instructions from the Colonial Office to obtain the opinion of the Legislature and people of Canada, Nova Scotia and New Brunswick on the subject of the confederation.

The Times' city article reports the funds very inactive and without fluctuation.

The failure of a large sugar speculator in London, for £2,000,000, was announced on Tuesday.

The London papers of Wednesday publish an able report of Mr. Hehly, the electrical engineer, on the state of the cable. He is of the opinion that the cable is seriously injured about 300 miles from Valentia. He has put his large magnetic instrument in operation with a view to transmit messages to Newfoundland, but will not know the result until advised by steamers from America. Any attempt to raise the cable in deep soundings, would, in his judgment, cause its destruction. Finally, he does not despair of making the cable work, if it does not get worse.

The papers publish a dispatch from Lord Canning, Governor-General of India, in reply to Lord Ellenbarough's dispatch. Lord Canning complains of the treatment he had experienced. He defends his policy and asks to be relieved if he has failed to satisfy the government.

FRANCE.—The Emperor was at the Chalons Camp.

The Moniteur publishes a circular forbidding unstamped newspapers to insert advertisements. This return to the strict letter of the law will be a death blow to a multitude of minor newspapers.

It is stated as certain, that the Emperor of Russia has been invited by Prince Napoleon to visit France; that he has accepted the invitation, and will visit both Paris and London next spring.

River Steamers Sunk.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 19.—The steamer Flying Cloud sunk at Devil's Island on the 17th. She cost $55,000. The condition of her cargo, which was large and valuable, is not ascestained.

On the same day, the steamer Rudolph sunk at Goose Island. She was valued at $20,000, and insured for $15,000. Both the boats will probably be raised.

We also learn that the steamer Sam Young, from Peoria for this port, has been sunk in the Illinois River near its junction with the Mississippi. Boat lost—freight mostly saved—no lives lost.

News from Dr. Livingstone.

PROVIDENCE, Oct. 19.—The schooner E. H. Miller, at this port from Guillimore River, brings news that Dr. Livingstone had gone up the Nile with his small steamer.

The disturbances with the native tribes continued, and the new government had started with a force of three natives and forty European troops against them.

News had been received of a victory over the natives at Champanza on the Zambaei.

Steamers due from Europe.

ST. JOHNS, Oct. 19.—The steamship Pacific, from Galway on the 12th inst., is now due, and is expected between now and to-morrow morning. Her advices will be three days later than those by the Europa, now due at Halifax.

ILLUMINATING GAS.—
GAS FOR THE MILLION.
Gas for the Hall and Hamlet; for the Parlor and Workshop; for the Sea and Shore; for the Woods and Plains.
GAS FOR ALL!
THE VESPER GAS LIGHT.
THE CHEAPEST AND MOST BRILLIANT OF ALL GAS LIGHTS.
Competing directly with Coal Gas.
1st, In brilliancy of the light
2d, In the beauty of the fixtures.
3d, In the cleanliness of the apparatus.
4th, In its safety and convenience.
5th, In its ECONOMY.
Costing one-half less than Coal Gas at New York prices.

It has long been desired that the luxury of Coal or street Gas, now in use only in cities, could be produced in a portable form. THE VESPER GAS LIGHT, patented by D. H. CARPENTER, Aug. 4, 1857, and May 25 1858, is confidently offered to the public as the realization of that desire.

We take pleasure in submitting the following extracts;

MR. D. H. CARPENTER: New York, July 22, 1858.
DEAR SIR: After carefully observing the operation of your "Vesper Gas Light," I am of the opinion that it is the safest and best light now in use.
JAMES J. MAPES, Consulting Engineer.

D. H. CARPENTER & CO:
I am much pleased with the performance of your Vesper Gas Burner.
The illuminating power of Burning Fluid is derived solely from Camphene. One gallon of Camphene for your lamp is equivalent to five of Burning Fluid.
Yours is the only lamp for burning camphene or Benzole that I can recommend for general use.
CHARLES A. SEELY, Chemist.

New York, July 22, 1858.
MR. CARPENTER:
DEAR SIR: Your Lamp is, I believe, the first and only invention that effects, before combustion, a thorough aeration of the vapor of the oils used for illumination. By effecting this you are enabled to burn compounds rich in carbon effectually without the aid of a chimney, producing a light of superior quality, at a minimum of cost, and unaccompanied with danger from explosion.
A. K. EATON, Practical Chemist.

New York, July 27, 1858.
I have used the Vesper Gas Light Fixtures some time, and find that it is perfectly safe. The light is more beautiful than any I have ever used or seen. The expense is less than the same amount of light can be produced by any other means known to me.
E. J. BROWN, 145 Broadway.

New York, July 26, 1858.
This is to certify that I have used one of your Vesper Lamps for the last six months in connection with coal gas on the same floor, and find it produces a light superior to ordinary gas, with the advantage of being portable and more economical, the expense being about half a cent per hour with a full head on.
WM. S. MACY, No. 80 4th st., Brooklyn, E. D.

From the Worcester (Mass.) Spy.
"The proprietors of this new, brilliant, and economical Light illuminated the Hall of the Bay State House to such an extent as to put the lights of the City Gas Company quite in the shade. The light was the admiration of all beholders."

"This apparatus for producing a brilliant gas light, with great economy and perfect safety, is so much superior to any other devised for this purpose, that we cannot question the fact that it will supersede them, and be brought into general use as soon as its merits become generally known."—N. Y. Inventor.

* * "It as far exceeds the brilliancy of (coal) gas light as (coal) gas light does ordinary whale-oil illuminations. * * Of the superiority of the Vesper Gas Lights there can be no doubt."—Boston Daily Courier.

SEWING MACHINES.
(Pratt's Patent) The Ladies Companion Single and Double Thread Sewing Machines are warranted to do the work of any other family machine and equally well. They will stitch, hem and gather—and can be so adjusted that the work can be taken out, or so it cannot. There is no threading of the under needle, it threads itself. They are the simplest and most elegant machine in use. They do not miss stitches, and cannot be got out of order. It is less complicated by one-half than any other machine; there are no springs in it, and are so simple a child can sew with them. They sew with great rapidity and little noise. Every machine warranted. Satisfactory references given.
The price comes within the reach of all. The common Treadle machine $25. The silver Plated, beautifully decorated, $30—all complete.

The Lesson Taught by the Baltimore Election.

We printed, yesterday, from the Baltimore Daily Exchange, a startling account of the disorders which attended the Municipal Election in that city on Wednesday last. The polls were taken possession of by bodies of armed men, who permitted whomsoever they they pleased to vote, and drove all but a few opponents away. The police under the authority of the Mayor were powerless; they dared not attempt the arrest, and no magistrate would have had the temerity to punish the offenders against the law. Squads of rowdies loaded with slung-shot, revolvers and bowie-knives patrolled the streets shouting out partisan cries, and beating down all opposition as they went. During the day unoffending and peaceable men were set upon and beaten without mercy because they had political opinions, that did not square with those held by the dominant faction; and at night the sun went down on a city wholly at the mercy of a mob. We cannot pretend to justify these violators of the law. Their offences, however, admit of this palliation: For ten years anterior to the organization of the American party, the Irish Democracy of Baltimore ruled the city with an iron hand. Their will was law, and its exercise on election days was the signal for the disgraceful political saturnalias which have made so many of our municipal contests tragedies and nothing more. They were wont to migrate from ward to ward as their services were needed, to take possession of any poll which they were pleased to hold, to drive away citizens of American birth, sometimes with violence but more frequently with yells of derision and contempt; their arguments were shillelahs and brick-bats, their gentlest persuasions kicks and blows, and their final feat, when all other means failed, destruction of ballot-boxes and the rout of the inspectors at the polls. Our city readers know the Irish tactics, and they know the results; and they will not wonder that the native born tax-payers of Baltimore have at last rebelled, or that the revolution which they have organized has fearful and sometimes fatal effects. The scenes there on Wednesday last were but the natural and expected reaction against the long abuses of which the Democracy were the cause. They are beyond the reach of law or police; because the law makers defend their necessity, and defend their continuance. They say, and perhaps with a show of reason, that the question is narrowed down to this. Shall we submit to violence and intimidation for the inauguration of bad government, or shall we intimidate others that good government may be the result? It is a fearful alternative, but the originators of the system—those who abused the Irish vote and made it what it is—must bear the blame.

There is a lesson in this Baltimore business which Democratic partisans in Illinois will do well to heed. They are to-day inviting the kind of warfare to which the citizens of Baltimore have been compelled. They are importing and colonizing voters in half a dozen of the interior counties. They are planting squads on the South Side, in this city, where they hope to make a show of strength. They are warming up these deluded men with incendiary appeals and poor whisky, to a point where on the day of voting they will be ready for any violence and bloodshed which their bad cause may demand. In a word, they are manufacturing the excuses behind which men now conservative and peaceful will take refuge when they are forced to do as the peaceful and conservative men of Baltimore have done. We warn them—these deluded Irishmen, the priests of their churches who must know if they do not wink at the Democratic policy, and the leading Democrats themselves—that their frauds and illegalities, their violence and disorder, will not always be submitted to as they have been heretofore. Their rights as citizens under the law, no one is disposed to wrest from them; that they may vote, that they may use all honorable and fair endeavors for the candidates of their choice, is not questioned; but come what may, there must be no more of the rioting and intimidation, the double voting and perjury by which our elections have been marked. There is an end of human endurance, and that, if we mistake not, is approaching.

How Good it Feels.

When Douglas at Galesburg charged Lincoln with receiving the support of certain Postmasters and other federal office-holders, he referred of course to the fifteen or twenty who have recently come into power, and not to the fourteen hundred who are laboring night and day to elect himself—scores of whom do not scruple to violate their official oaths by withholding from our subscribers the papers from this office for which they have paid, and some of whom actually open and read letters and documents which they suspect as containing political information. Of course Mr. Douglas did not refer to these geniuses when he cried out against the enormity of Mr. Lincoln's receiving the indirect support of federal office-holders. It occurs to him as being a monstrous outrage that he does not have fourteen hundred and twenty postmasters employing their official positions to re-elect him to the Senate instead of bare fourteen hundred. Unless in addition to all the other appliances for manufacturing votes which he knows so well how to use, he can have the whole Post Office Department directing its energies to the same end, he regards himself the victim of an inconceivable wrong, and it is pretty evident he regards "my place" in a perilous fix.

Ever since its formation the Republican party has had to contend against the post offices and postmasters of the whole country. It has risen in spite of them and gained strength in the face of their bitterest and most unscrupulous opposition. More than any other man in the nation has Douglas egged them on to cripple the circulation of Republican newspapers and extend that of the Pro-Slavery organs. The Chicago Times has been built up, in spite of the public taste and sense, by postmasters. In Illinois they have been his tools and sycophants, ready and zealous to do his bidding. Through them he has manufactured public opinion to meet his Pro-Slavery schemes. A thousand men judiciously selected and distributed, under the marshalship of a veteran like Douglas, constitute the most formidable battal in the army of politics. As a general thing politics is their trade. They go where bread and butter beckons them. As Douglas says of his everlasting humbug, they "follow wherever its logical consequences lead them."

As we remarked before there are some fourteen hundred postmasters in Illinois; perhaps a few have been added since the list before us was compiled. The Douglasites claim, and we presume with good authority, that there are no "Danites" among them except the twenty or twenty-five recently appointed. The rest are all hard at work for the man who gave them their places originally. We commend to Mr. Douglas the problem of how good it would feel to have the whole Post office enginery turned against him, instead of the fraction which has begun to give him a taste of its power. While the sympathies of the masses are being invoked in his behalf for the "proscription" of twenty-five postmasters let us have a little of the same sort for Mr. Lincoln, against whom over a thousand of these dromedaries are putting forth all their strength.

Approaching Elections.

The next elections to come off are, Louisiana on the 1st of November; New York, New Jersey, Massachusetts, Illinois and Michigan on the 2d; Maryland on the 3d; Wisconsin on the 4th, and Delaware on the 9th of the same month. These States choose seventy-six members of Congress.

The Lecture Season.

Those of our cotemporaries who during the last half-dozen years have been announcing the decline and predicting the ultimate extinction of lecturing as a profession, are ready by this time, no doubt, to confess that they were mistaken. It is one of the fixed institutions of the age, and instead of exhibiting signs of decay, is constantly taking deeper root in the popular regard. Nor is it difficult to see why it should be so. Lecturing is a species of preaching in which the parson is expected to choose the most pleasant themes, and to clothe them with all the fascinations of which he is master. He has no "hard sayings" for his miscellaneous flocks, and if at times his discourse be dull, he does not tire them with iterated monotony. Then what a range of subjects he has to choose from! Whatever is heroic, grand, or beautiful in the past—whatever stirs the popular heart in the present, furnishes a text to his hand. The only difficulty lies in the working up of his subject with the requisite skill to hit the prevailing humor, provided there be added to finished author-craft grace of person and manner.

The hard times of last year rather diminished the crop of lectures; but we conclude, judging from a list of lecturers now before us who are understood to be candidates for public favor, and anxious to exchange their summer lucubrations for hard cash at the rate of fifty down to ten dollars a night, that it will not be their fault if last year's deficiency is not considerably more than made up during the approaching lecture season. We find by careful count that the list contains one hundred and forty five—of whom about nine tenths hail from New York and Massachusetts, and perhaps a half-dozen outside of New England. Many we recognize as shining lights in the theological firmament, not a few as talkers by profession, one or two as travelers of note, with an original thinker thrown in here and there as ballast.

The literary wares of these gentlemen ought to be valuable—ought to be worth the money expected for them—and it behooves the Lecture Committees throughout the cities and villages of the land to see that they do not have an inferior article palmed upon them by the usual tricks of puffery. Shall the public be fed on husks when it is ready to pay for and to welcome the choicest intellectual and spiritual nourishment that the market affords? Verily not. Though it have an omnivorous appetite, and be not so discriminating in respect to quality as it ought, yet, thanks to the multiplication of books, the universal diffusion of newspapers, and to the labors of lecturers themselves, it is a good deal more discriminating than formerly, and those whose business it is to cater for the public appetite ought to be correspondingly exacting. Let them bear in mind that not more than one in twenty of those who are anxious to amuse and edify the public are thoroughly qualified for their task. Let us have done with mere fanciful twaddle and demand the genuine coin of the intellectual mint. To demand is to have, and the difference in price between the two articles bears no proportion to the immense difference in quality. It happens for the present that the East nearly monopolizes the business of lecturing, but the West happily has the freedom of choice, and ought not to be put off with the worthless trash, as has too often been the case heretofore.

Indiana State Ticket.

The returns from Indiana indicate the election of the Democratic State ticket by 1,000 to 1,500. The result is not surprising. Both wings of the Democracy supported their State ticket, while in the excitement and heat of the contest over the Congressmen the Republicans lost sight both of the State ticket and legislative—though we believe they have secured the control of the latter.

At the last Presidential election Buchanan received a majority of 24,295 over Fremont, and of 2,000 over the Fillmore and Fremont votes combined.

At the October election in 1856, the Republicans and Americans united on a State ticket, and were defeated by over 6,000 votes, notwithstanding the most herculean efforts were put forth to elect it. If the Republican State ticket is not beaten by over two thousand this fall, it shows a satisfactory growth of the party, in the Hoosier State, and renders its triumph at the next contest almost a certainty. But we think our friends in Indiana and elsewhere can console themselves with eight members of Congress out of eleven, and a majority of the Legislature for the loss of some Supreme Judges and a School Commissioner.

The real fight was made on Congressmen, and on these the aggregate Republican majorities will exceed ten thousand.

Slavery in Minnesota.

Mrs. Swisshelm, editress of the St. Cloud Visitor, accuses one Mr. Calhoun, who took an active interest in organizing a Presbyterian Church in that village, of holding and owning a slave woman at the time, who while in Minnesota gave birth to a son, and that he has since taken both mother and son back to Tennessee, and left them there in slavery. Such things have become possible in these modern times only in virtue of the ascendency of the Democracy and their principles.

Fuller Reciprocity with Canada.

The Toronto Leader, in connection with some remarks upon Mr. Shanly's report on the Ottawa survey, makes the following suggestion:

> What is wanted at this moment for Canada, is not improved communications; though, while saying this, we are by no means of those who undervalue them. It is rather to induce the authorities at Washington to give Chicago, as a port, the advantages possessed by New York; so that goods laid down there shall not pay duty as they do now on their market value in the cities of this Province, but on their cost in the country where they are manufactured. Until some principle of this kind be introduced, in vain shall we cheapen our communications with Montreal; for ocean freights will be so high from that port as to nullify our other advantages. There has ever been a wonderful apathy on these points. Since the Reciprocity Treaty was concluded, nothing has been done, and the commerce of the country with the United States, so far as broad and large views are concerned, has been left to develop itself.

We second the proposition of the Leader. Let us have reciprocity to the full extent demanded by the interests of both countries. This is not only a good and most desirable thing in itself, but it will tend more powerfully than anything else to create all needful facilities for intercommunication.

Buchanan on Douglas.

Mr. Buchanan was lately petitioned by distinguished Democrats of New York to suspend hostilities against Douglas. He replied: "The unity of the Democratic party shall be preserved, though you lose every Congressional District of New York." The President was prepared for the disaster in Pennsylvania; but is deeply affected by Hopkins' and Glancy Jones' defeat. He says the whole disaster to the Democracy is "chargeable to Douglas, who was too cowardly to carry out the work he began, and now wants to crawl back into favor."

Before leaving Washington Douglas made a truce with the Administration. The evidence is abundant that they had fraternized before he left the capital, and that it was in consequence of new treachery that he was fired into. We quote on this point the following statement that is given out as ex cathedra:

> "When Douglas made his first Chicago speech in July last, the Washington Union expressed great astonishment that he should have re-opened the settled issues of the last session of Congress. In this matter the Union was sincere, for it was aware of a fact of which the public was ignorant. There had been a negotiation between Mr. Douglas and the President, in which they mutually agreed to ignore the past. Mr. Douglas stipulated not to dig up Lecompton, nor attack the Administration, nor to assail the English bill; while on his part, the President engaged to let the Judge and Illinois politics alone until after the election. These articles were upon certain conditions, which have not been divulged; but one of the conditions is alleged to have been violated by the President before Douglas reached Chicago."

Now we ask any one of the five thousand persons at Alton who listened to Mr. Douglas' personal narrative of great wrongs done him, whether the foregoing does not convict him of insincerity; 1st, as it regards caring for any principle at all; 2d, as to his vaunted courageous conflict with Federal power; 3d, as to relations with those who, differing from the Democracy, might incline to favor anti-Lecompton positions. We contend that it is a plain and direct conviction of double-dealing on his part—paltering with the President, paltering with the people—and all to secure his own return to office.—St. Louis Dem., Oct. 18th.

Big Lumps in Columbia, Oregon.

The big lump of gold found in Columbia recently by Mr. Strain, has been melted and run into a bar, which weighs 401½ ozs., or 33½ pounds, and purchased by Messrs. Wm. O. Sleeper & Co., for the sum of $7,438 50. Besides this, Mr. Strain has reserved some four or five hundred dollars worth of specimens belonging to the same boulder, making the total value of the piece found about eight thousand dollars.

Chicago, Iowa and Nebraska Railway.

[Correspondence of the Press and Tribune.]

Knowing that you are always gratified to hear of the success of any worthy and legitimate enterprise, and especially when Chicago is to be in any way benefited thereby, I take the liberty of calling your attention to a few facts in connection with the Chicago, Iowa and Nebraska Railway, over which I had the pleasure of passing a few days since—from Clinton, on the Mississippi river, to its present terminus in the Cedar Valley.

I have been aware that the C., I. & N. R. R. was in process of completion; but until my recent trip over the line, I have not realized the importance of this enterprise both to Chicago and to that portion of Iowa through which this road passes; nor have I appreciated the credit this Company are entitled to for their untiring energy and perseverance in the face of panic, and all the obstacles which naturally present themselves in connection with building railroads in such times as these—all of which, however, in this instance, have failed to produce a suspension of their work for a single day. I was led to think of the old adage which says, "Where there's a will there's a way." Theirs has been truly an iron will, and has prevailed.

Leaving Chicago, I passed over the Chicago and Galena Union Railroad to Fulton on the Mississippi, and crossing the river at this point I found myself on the line of the C., I. & N. R. R., which is a continuation of the Galena or Dixon Air Line—making a straight line of railway from Chicago to the Cedar river. In passing from Clinton, on the west side of the river, to Union Grove, a distance of some fifty miles, I was particularly struck with the country through which we passed. Cedar and Linn counties particularly are both settled counties, and the latter is acknowledged to be the best in the State with one exception. There are several large towns in this county, Cedar Rapids (the western terminus of the road) being perhaps the most prominent of them all, though it is quite a number of years younger than any of the prominent towns in the county; but possessing as it does one of the finest water powers within the State, which is now in advanced state of improvement, it has become the largest town in the Cedar Valley, and must necessarily become, when the road is completed to this place, the rendezvous and shipping point for the entire country lying north and west between the Cedar and the Iowa rivers. I was told at Cedar Rapids that from twenty-five to thirty thousand dollars had been paid out there within the past three months for grain which had been shipped by steamboats from Cedar Rapids to St. Louis. They have a boat constructed with smoke-pipes to let down so as to pass under the railroad bridge at Moscow, on the M. & M. R. R., built at Pittsburgh and owned in Cedar Rapids, capable of carrying 350 tons; also a boat capable of carrying 100 tons, which runs from Cedar Rapids to Cedar Falls, a distance of 70 miles. These have been introduced within a few months, in the absence of their railroad, to take away the surplus of the old crop of grain raised within the past year, while the new crop is estimated to be more than sufficient for home supplies. Thus, when the C., I. & N. R. R. shall have been completed to Cedar Rapids, one of the very best and most advanced portions of the young and flourishing State of Iowa will be brought at once into communication with Chicago by a line of railroad, making the distance from Cedar Rapids to Chicago 30 miles less than by Iowa City.

A few words in regard to the present condition or state of the road, and I close. The present terminus is 30 miles from Cedar Rapids. The grading from this point to Cedar Rapids is entirely completed, and the ties are all got out for this last 30 miles. Sufficient iron has been purchased to lay the track to within seven miles of the western terminus, and the last seven miles of iron, I was told, would be bought immediately and the track laid the entire distance (30 miles) by the 1st of February. The line of road already completed is certainly the best and smoothest of any new road I have ever rode over in the Western country. Thus I have endeavored to show you what seemed to me to be an interesting fact, that while many people both East and West, during the last few months, have concluded that railroads and other similar enterprises in the West could not be built, or, if they were, they would not pay, unless "I see through a glass very darkly," this is an exception.

Yours very truly, CHICAGO.

A Southerner on Amalgamation.

CHICAGO, Oct. 18th, 1858.

Editors Press and Tribune:

GENTLEMEN:—As a looker-on and a Southern man, I only wish to say a word or two on this prolific subject of "Amalgamation," which Mr. Douglas seems to be so fond of parading on all available political occasions. He says in substance, that his principles and teachings are so broad and national, that he can openly express them as well in the South as in the North. Now, upon this score, I most frankly admit—and so will every other true Southern man, that, so far as a fair, free and manly utterance of national politics—principles and measures, are concerned, he could do so with as much freedom in the South as in Illinois. But this "Amalgamation" subject which seems to trouble him so much, (and truly at the expense of the South,) and excite his fears that the white race is going to be contaminated and run down by this improper admixture, is, politically, uncalled for—and would NOT be tolerated in the South by any of her leading men, unless, however, in a certain way. He might go down South, aye, he could go there, and appeal to their local prejudices by telling them that the Abolitionists and Black Republicans up North are a set of intermeddlers, disturbers of the public peace—amalgamationists, etc., who are bent on bringing about an "equality" of the whites and blacks by encouraging intermarriages, &c., &c. I say, frankly, if he were to talk in this way, he could go all through the South and say what he pleased against the Northern people. But let him turn the tables and denounce them—the very men who ought to be denounced, and told (in a proper and becoming manner) of their henious practices in this regard—I say, were he to denounce them openly and publicly on this score, Senator as he is, they would "make no bones" of giving him his walking papers, and turning his attention towards the North star.

Now, in regard to this tall Kentuckian, Abraham Lincoln, whom I doubt not is an honorable man, having arisen from among the common people,—I say, I wish he could go through the South and be permitted to explain to the comprehension of the 6,000,000 "poor white men" the blessings of free schools, and the advantages and benefits of intelligent free labor, which is so distinguishable wherever it exists. But as I promised when I began, to say but a few words, I must therefore close, notwithstanding the subject opens a wide field for contemplation.

A SOUTHERNER.

About English Grammar.

The Charleston Courier copies the following strictures of the Chicago Times on Mr. Lincoln's style of speaking, as evidence of its high qualification to criticise other people's grammar. Note the italics:

> "Shall the Republican State ticket be elected while you have candidates such as Fondey and French—men of pure personal character and admitted qualifications? Shall you elect a Republican Legislature, like that which met in 1855, and disgraced the State at home and abroad? Shall you by your want of zeal and inattention allow the Republicans to elect Abraham Lincoln, and is he an extraordinary man intellectually? Will he go to the Senate armed with an eloquence and argumentative power that will command attention and enforce compliance with their demand? What is there to be accomplished during the next six years, that makes it necessary that Illinois shall put on the disgusting robes of "negro equality" in order to have him elected? Will Lincoln be a greater orator, a more successful debater, or more clear headed in his speeches after he shall have been elected than he has shown himself to be during the present canvass? Will he in the Senate pick up ability which he does not now possess? Will he learn there how to construct sentences in an intelligible form? Will be there learn how to state his views without being compelled for a month afterwards to explain, modify and finally "take all back" what he had previously uttered? If the object be to elect Lincoln that he may have six years schooling to qualify him for the place of Senator, we confess that such an object is not of sufficient importance to the people of this State, that they should incur for themselves and for Illinois all the odium that must attach to them in case of his election.

Great Republican Gains—The Next House of Representatives.

The following is the result of the election for members of the present United States House of Representatives from the States which held their election on Tuesday, October 12. We also give the classification for 1856:

Pennsylvania	22	3	10	15
Ohio	15	6	13	9
Indiana	8	3	5	6
Iowa	2	0	2	0
	[illegible]	11	29	30

Of the Opposition Congressmen in Pennsylvania four are Anti-Lecompton Democrats, and in Indiana one.

In the present House of Representatives, as elected, the Democratic party over the combined Opposition was twenty-two.

—The Washington Union is dolorous over "heavy reverses." It should keep its courage up to enable it to meet the more serious ones in store for the party.

HAYES ON DOUGLAS!

LIGHT READING FOR THE VOTERS OF COOK COUNTY.

Speech of S. S. Hayes, Esq., at a Democratic Meeting in Chicago, Oct. 19, '55.

FELLOW CITIZENS:—In addressing you to-night, I am actuated by no feeling of unkindness towards the distinguished Senator with whom I have the misfortune to differ. I say, once for all, that our differences are political; and they will never impel me to an expression of personal dislike or disrespect which I do not feel.

DOUGLAS A FRIEND OF FOREIGNERS.

What was the action of a Nebraska United States Senate in regard to foreigners? You are all aware that while the Nebraska bill was pending in that body, Mr. Clayton, of Delaware, moved an amendment, the effect of which was to deny foreigners settling in Kansas or Nebraska the right of voting, unless they had first resided five years in this country. That amendment was incorporated in the bill by that Nebraska Senate, Judge Douglas voting against it, and the bill, including that amendment, was passed by a large majority, receiving the vote of Judge Douglas himself. He thus declared, in the most effective manner, "I am indeed opposed to illiberal laws against persons of foreign birth, I prefer to admit them to our Territories; but there is an object nearer my heart, an object to secure which I am willing to see them excluded from those Territories, or admitted as cattle are, to work but not to vote—that object is the repeal of the Missouri Compromise, and the extension of human slavery."

* * * * * * *

MR. HAYES NOT AFRAID OF SHADOWS.

The Senator talks about abolitionism, and says that we dare not avow our opinions three miles south of the Ohio River. It does not become him to make that charge against me. If he will recall what took place in this hall five years ago, when nearly all his friends were frightened from his side by the wild storm of popular rage, and my best efforts, feeble though they were, were joined with his in defence of a law required by the Constitution, but odious in its nature, and repugnant to the feeling of the people, I think he will take it back. The Senator argues that Abolitionists unite with us in resisting the extension of slavery, and therefore we are Abolitionists. He says however that he is opposed to making Illinois a Slave State. The Abolitionists certainly unite with him in that position; and, by the same argument, he must be an Abolitionist. If Abolitionists approve our course in opposing the extension of slavery, I presume the pirates and slavers on the African coast approve his course in favoring its extension. The approval of the one class does not convert him into a man stealer and a pirate, nor will an intelligent people believe that the approval of the other can make Abolitionists of us. For my part, I am not afraid of shadows. There are no terrors in a name. It is easy for him and his new allies to call my Democratic friends and myself any bad name that may suit their fancy, but they cannot drive us from supporting the Constitution of our country, nor can they quell our resistance to a scheme the consummation of which would be the subjugation of the Free States, or the dissolution of our blessed Union.

MR. HAYES DISCUSSES THE NEBRASKA BILL.

I come now to the great question of the day, the Nebraska question. On that I join issue.

Senator Douglas declaims most eloquently on the right of the people to govern themselves. I also am an advocate of self-government by the people, not only in a distant wilderness but in this State of Illinois. To govern themselves they must have agents, creatures of their power, servants of their will. The salary and fame of the public servant are his own, but his office and its functions belong to the people who elect him. His voice should be their voice, his action their action. Else republicanism is but a name, and representative government a lie. Now let me ask you what portion of the people of this State demanded the repeal of the Missouri Compromise, which was brought about by our Senator. Where were the petitions, or letters, or public meetings in its favor? Did a half or even a fourth of our people approve his vote at the time it was given? It is pretended that the repeal was demanded by legislative instructions passed in 1851. Instructions passed for a different purpose and relating to different territory. But no member of that Legislature will dare to say that they received such a construction in the body which passed them.

At that time, and until January, 1854, that repeal was never dreamed of by any Legislature of this State, or by the people here or elsewhere. The announcement that it was proposed in the Senate was heard everywhere with wonder and dismay. It was heard as the announcement of an impending calamity, dreadful, unthought of—one of those dire calamities for which nations sometimes mourn. Soon from every part of this broad land there was a sound like the voice of many waters. It gathered strength as it went. It was the mighty voice of an angry people. It fell on the ears of Congress in tones of thunder. But it was disregarded, and the act was passed in defiance—in contempt of the people—passed under the whip and the gag—passed by seduction and threats—passed by the shameless abuse of executive patronage—and passed at that time for the very reason that the people were against it, and for the purpose of removing it from their control; and yet Judge Douglas, the chief of the band who have thus robbed the people of their power, and trampled their authority under foot, is not ashamed to come home, and talk to us about Popular Sovereignty, and the right of the people to govern themselves—and even worse, in the same breath to denounce his constituents as traitors and Abolitionists if they refuse to support the measure which their servants have thus passed in defiance of their wishes.

In his desperate effort to effect a change in public opinion, the gentleman is resorting to assertions and arguments as little complimentary to his hearers as they are creditable to himself. One statement which he made will excite the surprise of the whole country. He stated emphatically that a great and good man, now no more, Henry Clay, of Kentucky, had declared in 1850 that it was a SLANDER to say that he was the author of the Missouri Compromise! [Several voices—Yes, I heard it.] A slander is a charge of crime or vile conduct, which disgraces a man, and makes him infamous. And we are told that the statesman and patriot who won his place in the hearts of his countrymen by his advocacy of that measure, and who gained thereby his proud title, "The Great Pacificator," declared it was a slander to call him its author, and by consequence that its authorship was an act of infamy and crime. Let me read you an extract from Mr. Clay's speech in the Senate, delivered May 21, 1850, as reported in the Washington Union: "I know something, I think, of the nature of man. I know something of the nature of my countrymen. I speak also with the authority and with the aid of history. At the time of the memorable Missouri Compromise, as at this—and I have been unable to determine in my own mind whether more solicitude and anxiety existed then than now—the whole country was in an uproar, on the one side for the admission of Missouri, and on the other for her exclusion. Every legislative body throughout the country—I believe there were twenty-four then—had denounced or approved the admission of Missouri. The measure was finally carried by a small majority—only six in the House of Representatives, where the great struggle—where the long continued exertion was carried on. And what were the consequences—the tranquilizing consequences—which ensued throughout this distracted country? The act was everywhere received with joy, and exultation, and triumph, and the man who would have dared to interrupt the universal, and deep-felt, and all-pervading harmony which prevailed throughout the country in consequence of that adjustment, would have stood rebuked, and repudiated, and reproached by the indignant voice of his countrymen."

Again, in his speech of July 22d, 1850, he said: "Yes, sir, the Missouri Compromise was received with exultation and joy. Not the reception of the treaty of peace negotiated at Ghent, nor any other event which has occurred during my progress in public life, ever gave such unbounded and universal satisfaction as the settlement of the Missouri Compromise."

Now are you prepared to believe that at the same session the sage and patriot of Ashland, stigmatized this very act, thus warmly lauded, as an act of crime and infamy and repelled the statement that he was its author as a slander?

The Senator also said that in 1848 the Missouri Compromise had been abandoned and repudiated by all parties—by the Whig party, which nominated Taylor, by the Free Soil party, which nominated Van Buren, and by the Democratic party, which nominated Cass, and that he was the only man in the country who then sustained it. But I think he cannot support his statement by the testimony of a single man whose recollection extends back to that time. The repeal of that Compromise was not advocated by any party. I believe that neither the Whig nor the Democratic Convention passed any resolution on the subject; and the resolution of the Buffalo Free Soil Convention was not in favor of opening to slavery the free soil north of 36 deg. 30 min. in the territory acquired from France, but on the contrary, it demanded a prohibition upon slavery in all our Territories, especially those acquired from Mexico. And even if that Convention had repudiated that Compromise and sought its annulment, they were not sustained by the people, and it is a poor justification for Judge Douglas that he has at last landed on their platform.

It is not only true that the Missouri Compromise was not repudiated in 1848, but it is also true that for years afterwards it was regarded by the mass of the people and the most prominent statesmen of the country, "as a sacred thing which no ruthless hand would ever be reckless enough to disturb."

Senator Douglas himself, said in the Senate, in December, 1851, referring to the time of the adjustment of 1850, two years after the time when, as he now pretends, the Missouri Compromise was repudiated by all parties: "My preference for the Missouri Compromise was predicated on the assumption that the whole people of the United States would be more easily reconciled to that measure than to any other mode of adjustment; and this assumption rested upon the fact that the Missouri Compromise had been the means of an amicable settlement of a fearful controversy in 1821, which had been acquiesced in, cheerfully and cordially for more than a quarter of a century, and which all parties and all sections of the Union professed to cherish, as a fair, just and honorable adjustment."

This was almost a repetition of the language of his speech delivered in Springfield, in the summer of 1849, in which he said it "had received the sanction and approbation of men of all parties, in every section of the Union," and that "it had given to Henry Clay, as its prominent champion, the proud sobriquet of 'The Great Pacificator.' He was not aware that any man or party, from any section of the Union, had ever urged as an objection to Mr. Clay, that he was the great champion of the Missouri Compromise. On the contrary, the effort was made by the opponents of Mr. Clay, to prove that he was not entitled to the exclusive merit of that great patriotic measure."

I do not say it was the true intent of the Nebraska act to legalize slavery, for this is a doubtful point; but I do say it was the design of its framers to prepare the way for the extension of slavery, and that the policy of the Administration, sanctioned by Judge Douglas, has been to carry out the design, and to make the Territory of Kansas slave territory, and ultimately a slave State.

WHAT MR. HAYES IS "JUSTIFIED IN SAYING."

I think that I am justified in saying, in view of these facts, that a well concerted and stupendous scheme for the extension of slavery is now being carried out. Should it succeed in Kansas, the next step will be to repeal the Mexican prohibition in the other Territories where it exists, to declare that the Constitution sanctions slavery everywhere,* and to legalize the African slave trade with all its horrors.

The Senator last year defended the Nebraska Act, on the ground that it opened the region south 36° 30' to free labor, and was therefore an anti-slavery measure. Now he says in its defence that "if ten slaves be carried into Kansas, there are ten less in Missouri or Virginia," and he intimates that a different policy would be inhuman—would be to lessen slavery by starving the slaves to death. Let me relieve his humane anxiety for the welfare of that unfortunate class. I can tell the gentleman that his apprehensions are entirely unfounded. He need not fear that our Southern brethren will starve their slaves merely because they have lost a portion of their value. They are not so cruel; nor would it be to their interest, any more than it would to kill their horses and mules because they could not get so much for them as they had once been worth. I repeat, the slaves would not be starved to death, but slavery would; and the means would soon be found by the Southern States to rid themselves of it. But is it no evil to extend the area of slavery—to bring a new population under its blighting influence? Is it no evil to degrade labor, and compel the free white man to work, if he works at all, by the side of slaves?

MR. HAYES DISCOURSETH ON FREE LABOR.

My fellow-citizens, give me free men to work, and not slaves. I speak to you to night for the dignity of labor. When God formed man, when he framed the wondrous mechanism of his body, and crowned him with thought and immortality, and placed him the paragon of creation on the virgin soil of the new made earth, He said: "By the sweat of thy brows shalt thou earn thy bread." I bow to that law of the Almighty, and hail it as the great boon to the human race. Labor sustains the world. It makes your railroads, builds your cities, fills your storehouses, and whitens the seas with your commerce. More than that, it gives you soldiers for your wars, statesmen for your councils, and covers your land with a manly and virtuous people. I fear not, therefore, to appeal to you in behalf of labor, and to ask you to condemn every effort to degrade it by the extension of slavery over territory which by right and compact should be free.

MR. HAYES ON DOUGLAS' DOINGS IN KANSAS.

The facts I have alluded to are bad enough, but there are others which are worse.

Our friends, the playmates of our childhood, our brothers, have taken their wives and their little ones, and the household gods, and have gone to the distant West. There they have made their inclosures, and erected their cabins, and prepared to found a new State in the far wilderness. What has befallen them?

Some of them have been tarred and feathered. Some have been beaten, some have been driven from their homes. Every species of insult and outrage has been heaped upon them. Their places of election have been surrounded by armed hordes of ruffians; the ballot-box has been torn from their hands, a spurious Legislature has been imposed on them by people of another State; their local officers have been elected for six years by that spurious Legislature, and a cruel and infamous code of laws has been enacted, and is sought to be fastened on their necks. The men who have opened the door for all these wrongs, talk to us in dulcet tones, in praise of liberty and self government. They are murdering liberty. Liberty lies bleeding on the green sod of Kansas. Don't you hear her imploring voice? Every west wind bears it to our ears. "Help, help me sons of Washington, or I am forever slain." What says Senator Douglas? He says it is "none of your business. You have enough to attend to in Illinois." It matters not what laws are made in Kansas, you cannot justify interfering on the plea that the laws made there are bad laws. That is the plea of tyrants. "If you ask the Czar of Russia why he does not let the people legislate for themselves, he would tell you that they would make bad laws." The Senator has recently been in Russia, and if report be true, he had a good opportunity to learn the maxims and opinions of the Russian Court; but I think in this matter he is mistaken. I think if you could get the Russian tyrant, to give you a reason why he does not permit his subjects to govern themselves he would tell you, "It is none of their business." That is the tyrant's plea, and his trick to delude the people and cheat them of their rights. "You have enough to do on your farm, or in your workshop, or at your counter, but as to Government, that is none of your business." Let us see whether the condition of Kansas is a part of your business. Kansas belongs to the United States. Her inhabitants are feeble, and have neither troops nor money with which to resist an invading army. If they are not outcasts, they have a right to protection. That protection must come from the United States, from Congress or the President. Congress and the President are your agents, accountable to you, and it is "your business" to see that they do their duty.

Is it not their duty to redress the grievances of the Free State settlers? The Nebraska party with Judge Douglas at their head, do not openly espouse the cause of the Missouri invaders, and even profess to disapprove of their acts; yet they are lending them "aid and comfort," by denouncing emigrant aid societies, and stigmatizing the settlers who went out under their guidance as Abolition emissaries. No one can believe that a poor man would take his wife and children, and goods, and make a journey of fifteen hundred miles into a new territory for any other purpose than to get a home. After he has gone there, and become a settler, he has all a settler's rights, and it matters not how he got them, whether he went as a Government official, with a fat salary of the people's money, or as an humble laborer, too poor to make his way without assistance. That I call the Democratic doctrine, and I doubt not it will be indorsed by the people of this State, and that they will demand of their agents to recognize the rights of those settlers, and to protect them to the fullest extent.

MR. HAYES SAITH IN CONCLUSION.

In conclusion, let me say to you, my fellow-citizens, that in my humble judgment, it is the duty of every citizen, now more than ever before, to raise his voice against misrule, against corruption in the Administration of public affairs, and against a departure from the policy of our fathers. If we now depart from the policy sanctioned by them, if we abandon the Compromises they have made, and adopt a new policy of Abolitionism on the one hand or slavery propagandism on the other, then the days of our Republic are numbered.

Election in Minnesota—Probable Republican Victory.

[From the St. Paul Times, 16th inst.]

Our returns to-day indicate that the Republicans have carried the State. It is possible that some of the southern counties may disappoint us by throwing their votes for the Democrats, in which event the contest will be close. So far as now heard from, we find that Ramsey County is for the Democracy, electing six representatives.

Washington County is reported as having gone for the Republicans. Part of the ticket is surely elected.

Hennepin County is sure for the Republicans, electing one Senator and five Representatives and one Democrat.

Rice County is sure for the Republicans.

Dakota County, it is thought, elects one Republican and one Democratic Senator. The Republicans have one Representative and the Democrats four.

Scott County has elected Baldwin, Rep., to the Senate, and Dooley, Rep., to the House. Yost, Dem., is elected to the House.

Olmsted County is Republican by 150 majority.

Anoka County elects Stowell, Republican—is all right for white men. The vote in the Princetown district was 44 Republican to 22 Democratic.

We cannot get any very reliable information from the Minnesota Valley.

Sibley and McLeod are reported as having elected the Independent Democratic ticket.

Houston County (so say the passengers from the boats) has gone Democratic, but by what majority, we do not learn.

Fillmore is reported as having also cast its vote for the Democracy.

A report reaches us that Cowan, the Democratic candidate for Senator from Nicollet County, is defeated, and Dodge, of the Free Press, elected.

So far as we can learn, the Republicans throughout the State have fought nobly and will be rewarded with the consciousness of having carried the Legislature.

The Minnesotian of the same date says:

Of the thirty seven Senators, 11 are Democrats; to elect eight, or the Republicans thirteen, to make a majority in that body. Of the twenty members to elect, so far as heard from, the Republicans have elected ten and the Democrats six.

Of the eighty members of the House, the Republicans have elected, as far as heard from, thirty-three, and the Democrats twenty-eight.

Companies for the Kansas Gold Mines.

A letter from Fort Kearny, dated October 2, says:

> The gold excitement is quite high at this place. A company has been formed of the mechanics and others here, and have employed a man of trust and experience to go and prospect for them before they start. He starts out on the 4th inst, and will be back in a few weeks. Several strong parties have passed through the Fort en route to the diggings. One party was from Pacific City, Iowa. This day a party of twenty-five men from Plattsmouth are here making their last purchases, and will leave for the diggings in a few moments. Another train from Omaha, N. T., of about thirty men, is on the road a short distance behind. There are many trains on the way up from the States. Nebraska and Kansas will soon give a good report to the world.

[From the Louisville Journal.]

The editor of the Ohio Statesman, the next day after the overwhelming defeat of the Democratic party in Ohio, said he was prouder of his Democracy than he had ever been before in all his life. We are disposed to agree with him that Democracy, like syllabub, is best when well whipped.

—An Illinois paper says that "the orbit of Mr. Douglas is as eccentric as that of the comet now visible in the heavens." No doubt Mr. Douglas is, as eccentric as the comet, but we fear that he will never be "visible in the heavens" either in this world or that to come.

—The "Reveries of a Bachelor," new series, edited by James Buchanan, are to be published in serial form by Wendell & Co., of Washington City, through the columns of the official paper.

Great Meeting at Lincoln.

LOGAN COUNTY AWAKE.

5,000 Voters in Council.

[From the Illinois Journal.]

One of the largest and most enthusiastic meetings of the campaign was held at Lincoln, Logan County, on Saturday last, to hear honest Abraham Lincoln, the great champion of liberty and the defender of free labor and the white man's rights. Our friends in that prosperous town had made preparations for a large crowd, but the number far exceeded their anticipations.

The lowest estimate of the number present places it at 5,000, while others are much higher. Never was the town so full before, and never did Logan County turn out such an enthusiastic crowd to hear any man speak. Delegations were present from this city, Williamsville, Elk Hart, Atlanta, Mt. Pulaski, Middletown, Sugar Creek and nearly every town in the county, bearing music and banners.

The cars from this city were completely filled inside, and covered with passengers on top, before reaching Lincoln. The train from Atlanta was also crowded. One of the largest country delegations was that from Mt. Pulaski, which numbered over fifty wagons, besides a large number on horseback, and an equestrian cavalcade of thirty couples of gentlemen and ladies. A delegation of Germans carried a banner inscribed "Abe Lincoln, the choice of the Germans." Two cars, each containing thirty-two young ladies, representing the different States, were fitted up at Lincoln.

Mr. Lincoln was a passenger on the train from this city, which arrived at about twelve o'clock, and he was greeted with hearty cheers from the assembled multitude. After the usual procession, which was a very long one, and partaking of some refreshments, Mr. Lincoln took the stand, erected near the west front of the Court House, and beautifully decorated with wreaths of flowers, &c., and was introduced to the audience by S. C. Parks, in a few neat and appropriate remarks. Mr. Lincoln then began his speech, and for over two hours held the vast multitude enchained by the power of his eloquence. His speech was one of the best he ever made and the enthusiasm of his hearers was unbounded. They were wild with excitement, and betrayed a spirit that augurs well for success in Logan County. We should be glad, did our space permit, to give a more extended account of this most successful meeting, but we must for the present forbear.

Kansas Matters.

Denver's Resignation—His Probable Successor, &c.

[Correspondence of the Cincinnati Gazette.]

LAWRENCE, Kansas, Oct. 11, 1858.

To-morrow the resignation of John W. Denver takes effect, and for the sixth time during the four years that our Territorial Government has had an existence, the Gubernatorial office has become vacant. During Denver's administration he has been fortunate enough to give general satisfaction to the people, with the exception of his acts during the session of the Territorial Legislature, when he attempted to defeat several important bills. His prompt action in Southern Kansas, the removal of obnoxious county officers, and the appointment of successors indicated as the choice of the people during the difficulties in Linn and Bourbon Counties, is worthy of commendation.

Speculations are rife as to who his successor will be. In Leavenworth it is confidently asserted that Andrew Isaacs will be the man. In 1854 he received from President Pierce the appointment for four years as United States District Attorney, which he continued to hold until the expiration of his commission, when he was succeeded by William Weer.

Isaacs was for a time threatened with removal from office by the Administration for being implicated with Gov. Reeder and Judge Elmore in the celebrated "Kaw Half-Breed Land Speculation," but for some unexplained cause or other he was not decapitated, but allowed to retain the office, in which he gave ample assurance of his entire subserviency to the Slave Oligarchy which labored so energetically to enslave our Territory.

Isaacs is from Louisiana—a rabid pro-slavery man for a time; now he makes pretensions of being a "Democratic Free State man," anxiously desiring to have Kansas a Free Democratic State, and himself elected United States Senator. It is expected that the Democrats will support him for that office, and with the Governorship of the Territory it is thought he will be able to make rapid strides toward that position.

During the wars which have from time to time annoyed the people of Kansas, Isaacs was never a leader with the pro-slavery party; never took a prominent part in the difficulties.

The Minneola men will labor arduously for the appointment of Isaacs, as he is understood to have made pledges to them of his willingness to do all he can to secure the location of the capital at Minneola.

In Atchison County the Republican ticket for three members of the Legislature was defeated, by the election of conservative men. In Doniphan County the Republicans elected their five members. In Linn the Democrats succeeded in electing their two candidates over the Republicans. In the House the Democrats will have about one-fourth of the members, and the Republicans the remainder.

The Late Battle with the Indians.

[Correspondence of the St. Louis Republican.]

FORT BELKNAP, Young County, Texas, Oct. 7, 1858.

A dispatch came in this evening to Major Thomas, commander of this post, that Major Van Dorn's command, consisting of two hundred and fifty men, U. S. 2d Cavalry, and one hundred and twelve friendly Indians, commanded by Capt. Ross, had attacked a camp of Indians twenty-three miles west of Fort Arbuckle, on the morning of the 2d ult., at sunrise, and killed forty-four Indians and took over two hundred women and children prisoners, besides taking a large number of horses.

Major Van Dorn is badly wounded, having been shot twice—once in the arm, the other shot not mentioned. Lieut. Van Camp killed, and Capt. Ross wounded. Three of the men killed and eight wounded. The full particulars they had not time to state.

(PATENTED AUGUST 21, 1858.)
PREMIUMS AWARDED AT THE LATE Mechanical Fair held in this city.
The foundation of this roofing consists of Canvass saturated with Asphaltum, underlaid with Felt paper, or of Felt alone. The covering compound is composed of Asphaltum, India Rubber and Gum Shellac. A new method having been discovered of dissolving Rubber and Shellac, allowing any quantity desired to be used, and combining them with Asphaltum, without the use of expensive and injurious solvents used in all the Coal Tar Cements, which always evaporate and leave the Composition porous and brittle. In this compound all the volatile matter is removed, entirely freeing it from such defects, and is known to be the most durable material for roofing in the world.
All orders promptly attended to. Orders from the country supplied with the prepared Canvass Paper and Composition; with instructions.

CINES now before the public.

LIVER INVIGORATOR.

Only one bottle is needed to throw out of the system the effects of medicine after a long sickness.

One dose taken a short time before eating gives vigor to the appetite and makes the food digest well.

We take pleasure in recommending this medicine as a preventative for Fever and Ague, Chill Fever, and all Fevers of a Bilious type. It operates with certainty, and thousands are willing to testify to its wonderful virtues.

Special Notices.

Dr. J. Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters is one of the greatest strengthening preparations extant. It is especially adapted to those who are afflicted with the Fever and Ague, or any other disease arising from a disordered condition of the digestive organs. For the Fever and Ague there is, perhaps, no medicine in the world equal to it, as it enters, replenishes, and purifies the blood which is so important to bring about a healthy action in diseases of this nature. The Bitters are now among the most popular, and, at the same time, valuable specifics in the medicinal world. In recommending it to the public, we are fully conscious of doing them a great service, knowing, as we do, their many excellent qualities, and sure and speedy action in all cases where the disease is caused by irregularity of the digestive organs. A trial will suffice for the most skeptical.

For sale by Druggists and dealers generally, everywhere. oc12 2w

A Rare Chance for Employment.—Persons requiring a light, agreeable, and respectable employment, by which they can realize from $10 to $30 per week, will ascertain full particulars by addressing HUTCHINS & CO, 163 Chambers street, New York City. One postage stamp required to prepay answers. oc13 b149-1m

All those who are afflicted with any Chronic disease considered incurable, will receive a LETTER giving information which will insure a speedy and permanent cure by sending their names and one stamp (to prepay postage) to Dr. E. B. FOOTE, the celebrated Chronic Physician, and author of "Medical Common Sense." Saratoga Springs, N. Y. se14-3md&w-a834

Sawyer's Fluid Extract of Bark, an infallible remedy for the Fever and Ague, and the various forms of Billious Diseases, Intermittent, Remittent, Chill Fever and Dumb Ague, having their origin in malaria of very fertile and marshy districts, prepared by Dr. A. S. Sawyer, Druggist and Chemist, and sold by Sawyer, Paige & Co., No. 16 Lake street, Chicago.

This remedy prepared entirely from vegetable substances, and contains no mercury, arsenic, or anything that can prove injurious to the system. Its effects are those of a deobstruent and tonic, well adapted to restore the healthy action of the Liver and Stomach, whose functions are so generally impaired in this class of diseases.

Quinine and other tonics serve only in many cases to break the chills, but do not remove the diseases of the liver and other organs implicated, on which the chill and Fever depend; hence the usefulness of the "Fluid Extract of Bark," (particularly in regions where Physicians cannot be readily consulted), which contains all the qualities suited to the indications of these maladies.

Hundreds of testimonials in regard to the efficacy of the medicine from persons of respectability, have been given to the proprietor—but he does not make use of them as he prefers to have the medicine introduce itself security by its merits.

Dyspepsia and Fits.—Dr. O. Phillips Brown, The Great Curer of Consumption, was for several years so badly afflicted with Dyspepsia that for a part of the time he was confined to his bed. He was eventually cured by a prescription furnished him by a young clairvoyant girl. This prescription, given him by a mere child, while in a trance, has cured everybody who has taken it—never having failed once. It is equally as sure in cases of Fits as Dyspepsia. The ingredients may be found in any Drug Store. I will send this prescription to any person on the receipt of one stamp to pay postage. Address DR. O. PHILLIPS BROWN, No 21 Grand-st., Jersey City, N. J. au26-1y

Charles' London Cordial Gin.—The Original and only London Gin Imported. This Gin, distilled in London from sound Barley, under the surveillance of the British Excise Laws, is delicately flavored with a tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, and some of the most valuable restoratives of the Vegetable Kingdom, rendering it in the opinion of the most eminent medical men, the purest and safest stimulant or diuretic drink in use.

It is a delicious tonic, of a soft and delicate flavor, differing entirely from any other Gin, and devoid of that harsh, acrid taste, which renders the article known as Holland Gin or Schnapps so objectionable.

Though not intended as a medicine, it is recommended by physicians generally in cases of Dyspepsia, Gout, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Gravel, Colic, Cholera, Fever and Ague, Stricture, Diseases of the Urinary Organs, the Kidneys and the Bowels, Nervous Debility, &c., whilst the weaker sex will find by its adoption a sure relief from those distressing annoyances which frequently attend their delicate organization.

Dr. Valentine Mott, of New York, the highest medical authority, pronounces Charles' London Cordial Gin "not only superior to any other, but the best article of the kind he has ever seen."

It is peculiarly adapted to settlers in the Southern and Western States, as well as for travellers exposed to changes of water and air.

For sale in quarts at seventy-five cents, and pints thirty-eight cents, by all Druggists, Grocers, Fruiterers, and Country Merchants. Beware of imitations. Buy only CHARLES'. NONE OTHER IS IMPORTED.

May be had in Chicago, Ill., of FENTON, ROBINSON & SMITH, No. 16 South Water street; HAVEN, TYRRELL & CO., No. 57 South Water street.

A most Valuable Remedy for Headache.—Dr. R. A. Wilson's Tonic Cathartic and Anti-Dyspeptic Pills. Rev. W. G. Howard, Pastor of the 1st Baptist Church, Chicago, in a letter addressed to Messrs. Fahnestock & Davis, dated June 18th, 1858, says:—"During the last twenty years I have made use of a great variety of medicines prescribed by Allopathic and Homoeopathic physicians, but all have failed; and I had relinquished all hopes of relief, until I was induced to resort to WILSON'S PILLS. These have effectually relieved me in repeated instances of late, and I can cheerfully and conscientiously recommend them to others who are similarly affected." This sovereign remedy is for sale by J. H. Reed & Co., Sargent & Ilsley, Lord & Co., Gale Bros., Franks, Ball & Co., E. L. Sherman, M. Jerome, Thayer & Pike, H. F. Smith & Co., L. F. AN ENGLISH COLLIERY ON FIRE.

Fifty-one Persons Smoked Alive—Ten Killed.

[From the London News, October 2.]

The catastrophe which we are about to chronicle took place at "Page Bank," one of the Byers' Green Colleries. Page Bank is about four miles from West Hartlepool.

It seems that the "night shaft" had gone in at two o'clock on Thursday, numbering from forty to seventy men and boys. With them was an overman named John Mould. This man's duties ceased at eight A. M., at which time he had completed a thorough inspection of the workings, and had arrived at the bottom of the shaft ready to be relived by his successor. The second overman, named Thomas Kellet, arrived at the pit mouth about the same time, and was lowered. On his way down he smelt, or saw fire in the wood-work, and reported the fact to Mould. Accordingly they sent information round the works, requesting the men to assemble at the bottom of the shaft, and, in the meantime, began themselves to ascend for the purpose of ins. ection. Mould rode inside the "cage" or box which holds the small coal wagon in its ascent and descent, and Kellet sat on the outside. They had, it would appear, been drawn up a considerable distance—ten fathoms or more—when some portion of the brattice, which had been set free by the fire, fell and knocked poor Kellet from his seat, thus precipitating him to the bottom, and in all probability killing him. Mould was drawn to the top, and immediately gave an alarm, but the fire suddenly got such hold that it was impossible to render any assistance to the men below, although their cries for help could be distinctly heard. The fire very soon got hold of the "spears," or wooden arms and piston of the pumping engine, and thus this was brought to a standstill. The flames rushed up the pit and burnt a considerable portion of the wood-work over its mouth, and even when this had been extinguished, the dense smoke issuing from the pit gave terrible indication of the fire that still raged below.

The engines arrived in a short space of time, and pumped a great volume of water from the river Wear, which was directed to the burning timber, and also to the drift, the coal in which was found to have ignited. It was probably when the fire reached this drift that the explosion spoken of took place. Had the fire originated from an explosion in the works, it is difficult to see how Mould could be ignorant of it, or how he could have escaped, the brattices being certainly on fire when Kellet was going down, and therefore Mould began to ascend.

The incidents of this day were of an unvarying description, and so also in the night. Dense volumes of smoke continued to be emitted, so dense that the repeated attempts of men to get any distance down the pit were quite fruitless. Brattice cloth was put over the pit mouth, with a view to creating an artificial current, but there was little hope that this would be of any avail, the introduction of fresh air only making the fire burn more fiercely, without relieving the poor fellows down below.

The idea of the engineers was that they will be able in time to cut off the fire in the drift from that in the shaft, and that in the latter will then exhaust itself. There is, however, the possibility that the coal in the workings will take fire, if it has not done so already; and still further, there is the certainty that in five days at the most the whole colliery will be full of water, the quantity ordinarily pumped out being nearly 30,000 gallons per hour, and the pumping engines being totally disabled.

As to the chances of escape for the poor fellows in the pit, opinions vary. The viewers rest upon the fact that the workings cover 80 acres, and that these workings are a sufficient magazine of air to sustain life for several days. But this area will every hour be diminished by water; and other experienced men are of opinion that the descent of carbonic acid gas will be so considerable as speedily to destroy life, whilst the pitmen say that the air in the workings is itself little better than choke-damp.

The fire must, as it appears, have originated from the furnace. It is suggested that a spark had been carried up and rested upon the timber; but bratticing is of too massive a character to take fire from a spark unless rendered highly combustible by intense and long-continued heat.

DURHAM, Friday Evening.—The number of men in the Page Bank Pitt was larger than stated yesterday. They have all been got out to-day. The last was got out at six o'clock this evening, after having been in forty hours. Seventy-one alive and ten dead. The pit is still on fire at a blower in the shaft.

General Intelligence.

A BEAR TREED BY A HORSE.—Bears are more numerous this season than for several years in the central counties of the State, and adventures with them are quite common. Mr. D. Cross, of Fairfield, who recently visited Eaton county, related to us an affair which occurred four miles east of Eaton Rapids, which presents an example of maternal care by a mare for her colt that is rarely exhibited by the horse kind, if it was not a hair-breadth adventure. A mare with a colt by her side, was feeding in a pasture, when she was approached by three bears—and old one and two cubs nearly full grown. Alarmed for the safety of her colt, the mare forgot the usual fear of the horse for these animals, and attacked them with such vigor that they were forced to retreat. They were pursued so closely that one of them was compelled to seek safety and remain in a tree, until the owner of the mare, who had watched the whole proceedings, went to his house for a gun, returned and shot it.—Adrian (Mich.) Watch Tower.

SHOOTING A MINISTER IN MISSISSIPPI.—We learn that the Rev. P. E. Green, Methodist preacher in charge of the Warren Circuit, Mississippi, was shot at Montalbon, a few days since, by a man named Fisher. The wound is supposed to be mortal. Fisher has fled. All we could hear of the cause of the shooting was, that Fisher's wife had joined the church lately, and Fisher meeting Mr. Green abused him terribly, and finally pulled out a pistol and shot him.—Vicksburg Whig.

THE FATE OF THE MURDERER JONES.—For nearly a year, the case of Jones, who was convicted and sentenced for the murder of a Jew peddler in the western part of the State, has been before the Governor and Council. It was at first decided to allow the sentence of death to be carried out, but latterly he has sunk into a condition very nearly approaching idiocy, and the probability now is that the extreme penalty of the law will not be carried out.—Boston Traveller.

THE MOUNT VERNON FUND.—The Baltimore American says:—"The sum to be paid is $200-000; $18,000 were paid at the signing of the contract. The first instalment of $57,000, due Jan. 1, 1859, is now ready to be paid, and it is hoped to raise the entire purchase sum during the present year, in order to take possession on the coming 22d February."

The Great Brutal Prize Fight.

The great prize fight between Morrissey and Heenan, it is well understood, is to come off in Canada, some eighty miles across the border from Buffalo, on Wednesday morning, Morrissey having, in a "toss up," won the locality. The New York Herald, of Friday says of the anticipated affair:

Probably not less than $100,000, in the form of betting, are at stake on the issue of this prize-ring encounter. In addition to the honor of wearing "the belt," the united stakes of the two men amount to $5,000. This sum has now been placed in the hands of the stakeholder, and on Saturday last their representatives met in this city "to toss" for the choice of the battleground. In the articles of agreement the place of contest was to be in Canada—not nearer than seventy-five miles to Buffalo, nor further from it than one hundred miles. Fortune has favored Morrissey, and he has chosen ground somewhere in Canada, eighty miles from Buffalo.

The name of the place has not yet transpired, in order to keep the authorities of the province from preventing "the mill." Notwithstanding, the patrons of the ring will learn all about it in Buffalo the evening preceding the affair. Buffalo, therefore, is the rendezvous. Steamers are to be there chartered to transport "the fancy" across Lake Erie, and the tickets for the voyage are said to be fixed at a reasonable tariff, to enable all who wish to witness the contest an opportunity of being present.

The Albany Knickerbocker says the fight between Morrissey and Heenan comes off a week from next Wednesday. A party from Albany intend to be present. To complete arrangements they had a meeting to talk over matters. One gentleman, just returned from New York, informed the meeting that he had an interview with Joe Coburn on Tuesday, and learned from him the reason he gave up training the Benicia Boy was that he struck such tremendous blows that he would as soon act as groom to a triphammer.

Coburn allows that Heenan will break Morrissey's neck in the third round, and thus finish up the fight in eight minutes. Coburn says only one thing can cause the Benecia Boy to lose the battle, and that is "too much confidence or too little pluck." He has the power and science, he says, to whip a regiment of ordinary men, and all before breakfast. From all this it will be seen that Coburn has a very exalted opinion of Heenan. Should the Benicia Boy whip Morrissey, we understand that Aron Jones, will take him to England for the purpose of fighting Tom Sayers, the champion. Jones, like Coburn, insists that Heenan is the strongest fighter in the world, and could, if he pleased, whip a yard full of wild cats.

Two Men Killed by Infuriated Bulls.

HORRIBLE DEATH.—Mr. Seymour A. Gillett, a farmer of Naples, in this county, was gored to death last Friday by a bull. It appears that Mr. Gillett went to his pasture on the morning of the day named. He did not return, but his prolonged absence excited no fears, as it was presumed that he had gone for something to the residence of his father, about three miles distant. But it was discovered the next morning that he had not been there, and his brother thereupon proceeded to the pasture and commenced a search for him. Approaching the cattle, he observed the bull making unusual demonstrations of excitement and rage, and was finally driven from the field by the infuriated brute—not, however, without seeing enough to satisfy him that the missing man had been killed. The neighbors were then got together, and some of them, armed with rifles, entered the enclosure, and finding it impossible to drive the bull away, finally fired upon him. He was brought down after receiving ten shots, and the field was then searched. The remains of Mr. Gillett were found. The body was stripped of clothing, and had been pierced through and through in several places by the bull's horns. It was otherwise awfully mangled, and so much disfigured as to be scarcely recognizable. A club was found near by, with which it appeared the unfortunate man had attempted to defend himself in the unequal struggle. Pieces of clothing were also found scattered about the field, with other indications that the contest had been a severe and protracted one.—Canandaigua (N. Y.) Times.

SAD EVENT—GORED TO DEATH BY A BULL.—The Rev. Samuel C. Parker, of Hinckley, Medina County, met with a terrible death Sunday morning, the 10th inst. He was seen to go into a field in which he kept a bull, with a pitchfork in his hand, for the purpose as is supposed of driving the animal out. About an hour after a person called at his house to invite him to preach a funeral sermon, and was directed by the family to the field where they supposed Mr. Parker to be. On looking for him he was found dead, the body tossed over the fence several rods from where the pitchfork was lying. The horns and head of the bull were bloody, and the blood and marks on the ground indicated that the unfortunate man was gored and pitched along by the vicious animal from the place where the pitchfork was dropped to the fence, and then tossed completely over it.

Mr. Parker was a Methodist minister, and had a small farm on which he resided. A wife and three or four children are bereaved by the afflictive dispensation. He was much esteemed by a wide circle of friends and acquaintances, and a large concourse of people, including the Masonic fraternity, attended the funeral of the good man so suddenly and so sadly removed from their midst.—Cleveland paper.

Royal Politesse.

A Scotch newspaper, which evidently is deficient in the feeling commonly known as "loyalty" among the English, profanely has a cut at "Her Most Gracious Majesty," Queen Victoria. It appears that, accompanied by her husband and some of her children, Victoria lately visited the town of Leeds, on the way to Scotland, with the expressed purpose of opening a magnificent Town-Hall, which the Leeds people have lately built. The Glasgow Examiner says:

"Among the curiosities of royal life it may be worth while to state that, though the mayor of Leeds gave up his mansion to the Queen, and spent £10,000 in entertaining her, his lady was not allowed to dine with her or even see her. The mayor himself had commenced his dinner with a neighbor, when he was commanded to dine with the Queen; but the lady was not admitted to her own house to sit at her own table.

If this be a true bill, and it is precisely what we know to have occurred repeatedly at other places visited by the Queen, it is a fine specimen of cool impertinence. The Mayor, Mr. Fairbairn, "received the honor of Knighthood," and is now called "Sir Peter," but this is a scanty equivalent for the compliment he paid Her Majesty, at a vast expense. Another newspaper states that Lady Fairbairn had received a bracelet from the Queen, (after the publication of the above announcement,) but does not add that, with true womanly spirit, she had refused to accept a present from a lady, however exalted in rank, who would not sit down to table with her, would not even see her. This exclusiveness would be very amusing, if it were not very impertinent, sometimes. What a pity it is that the exigencies of State etiquette should compel Queen Victoria—really a very good-natured little woman—to do unkind and unmannerly things. One would have thought, in the instance of one of her own sex, the wife of her generous and devoted host, she would have acted differently.—Phila. Press.

Sugar Cane in Schuyler County.

A large amount of this cane has been grown in this county this season. It is said there is more than a hundred acres of it. The machines began running principally last week. It is unfortunate that we have so few machines in the county for pressing out the juice. It is supposed that a large amount of the cane will have to be left unworked. The cane is said to be far better than it was last year. Mr. King is manufacturing a splendid article of molasses. Mr. James Scripps is working a horse power machine with which he presses out the juice at the rate of one gallon or more per minute.—Citizen (Rushville), 16th.

CLEVELAND, OHIO.
THIS INSTITUTION IS DELIGHTFULLY situated on the outskirts of a beautiful forest, within the limits of the city of Cleveland and 2½ miles from the Post Office. The building is new, of brick, and furnished in the best style. The bath rooms are supplied with pure, soft spring water. The large patronage which this establishment is at present receiving from Chicago and other western cities, is a flattering recommendation of its popularity and flourishing condition. —OF—
Joshua R. Giddings'
EXILES OF FLORIDA,
NOW READY.
THE SUBSCRIBERS TAKE PLEASURE in announcing that they have now a fresh supply of this remarkable work, of which the DEMAND HAS BEEN GREATER THAN THE SUPPLY.

"The escaped Negroes and Seminoles of Florida have certainly, at last, found a historian who has done their deeds, their wrongs and their sufferings full justice, not to say that in doing so he may have borne somewhat severely upon others connected with that history. Mr. Giddings is a plain and severe writer of his own peculiar views and opinions, and is apt to give to what he says the coloring of his own prejudices. He is, however, truthful and well versed in what he has here undertaken. No one can help warming into indignation with him as they read of the base and cowardly pursuit and annihilation of the poor descendents of the Seminoles."—[Daily Wisconsin.

SPURGEON'S GEMS.—
Being Brilliant Passages from the Sermons of the Rev. C. H. SPURGEON, of London.
1 Vol....12mo....Price $1.00.
We have gathered from his discourses many of the most striking passages, and set them in these pages without regard to the order of subjects, or their relations to each other; a series of earnest thoughts and graphic pictures, all of them revealing the true greatness of the preacher's conceptions, his individuality and strength. No one can read the first page of this volume without feeling that the speaker is no common man.
The publishers present this book as a specimen of Mr. Spurgeon's happiest thoughts, gems from his discourses, which will glow in the mind of the reader, and quicken in him a desire to read and hear more of this remarkable youthful preacher.

Atkins' Reaper—The Factory to Lease.
THIS ESTABLISHMENT THE SUBscriber desires to lease to responsible and energetic parties at a low rent, who will build the Atkins' Self-Raking Reaper and Mower.
Both in Grain and Grass this has been found by the successful use of over 7,000 machines to be the best. As a GRAIN and LABOR-SAVER it is unequalled, and is also a first-rate mower. The factory and also the foundry is abundantly supplied with all requisite tools to build the Reaper economically, and to do any other work in wood and iron. A large stock of Reaper materials on hand will be sold to the lessee at a bargain.

COMMERCIAL.

Commercial and Money Matters.

TUESDAY EVENING, Oct. 19, 1858.

MONEY, EXCHANGE, &c.—The day has been dull and stormy, and business of all kinds has been light. The banks take readily all the produce paper that offers; but continue very chary, of all descriptions that will not be met at maturity. Rates remain unchanged, viz: bank discounts 10 per cent. Gold 1@1½c. The street brokers are doing very little, and rates are nominal at 1½@2 per cent per month.

Our commercial and financial readers will be interested by the following facts in relation to the

THE BRANCHES OF THE STATE BANK OF IOWA.

The Bank Commissioners of Iowa met at Iowa City on the 9th inst. to consider the application for Branches of the State Bank, and continued in session four days. Out of twenty applications laid before them, at this and a prior meeting, but eight were finally adopted by the Board, and after a very thorough sifting sifting of their respective claims.

"Muscatine Branch of the State Bank of Iowa," at Muscatine.

"Iowa City Branch of the State Bank of Iowa," at Iowa City.

"Dubuque Branch of the State Bank of Iowa," at Dubuque.

"Branch of the State Bank of Iowa," at Des Moines.

"Oskaloosa Branch of the State Bank of Iowa," at Oskaloosa.

"Mount Pleasant Branch of the State Bank of Iowa," at Mt. Pleasant.

"Keokuk Branch of the State Bank of Iowa," at Keokuk.

"State Bank of Iowa, Merchants' Bank," at Davenport.

Four of the places named—Keokuk, Dubuque Muscatine and Davenport—presented two applications each; and in the cases of Dubuque and Keokuk the parties were allowed to appear before the Board with this exception, the Commissioners deliberated with closed doors.

The Bank Commissioners of Iowa seem to be moving with great caution. Their prudence in this regard will inspire confidence in the Iowa banks, and their establishment on a safe basis will be a great advantage to the Western public.

A mistake occurred in our money market of yesterday morning, in regard to bogus five dollar bills on the Freeman's Bank of Augusta, Me. It was printed "Firemen's Bank." Our readers cannot be too cautious in regard to these bills.

COMMERCIAL.—Business in commercial circles during the past week has been more lively, and and a better tone has pervaded our markets. Money has been more abundant, and buyers have had less difficulties to contend with in procuring accommodations, either to ship or hold. The receipts and shipments for the week, as compared with those of the week previous are as follows:

	RECEIPTS.		SHIPMENTS.
	Last w'k.	Prev. w'k.	Last w'k.	Prev. w'k.
Flour, bbls	21 822	25 296	7 610	21,957
Wheat, bu	188 821	357 324	451,913	359 923
Corn, bu	123,324	266,248	157 195	339,225
Oats, bu	18 947	17,879	33,923	18,395
Rye, bu	2,268	1,664	....	....
Barley, bu	18,000	12,298	....	10,000

The heavy shipments of Wheat, as compared with the receipts during the past week, has tended to reduce the stock in this city considerably. Nor is there much prospect of the receipts increasing to any considerable degree for some time—the recent heavy rains having rendered the roads in the interior almost impassable; while farmers are not very much disposed to sell at all till prices improve.

As may be seen in a table which follows this, nearly one-half of the Wheat shipped from this port during the past week was Winter Wheat. This has reduced the stock of Red Wheat on hand to 162 912 bushels. The stock of Spring Wheat on hand is reported as 432,9.2 bushels; but as the warehousemen in reporting do not make any allowance for "shrinkage," there must be at least about 50,000 bushels taken out of the above figures.

The shipments of Breadstuffs at Milwaukee during the past week were:—Wheat, 79,602 bushels; Oats, 5,274 bushels; Corn, 5,722 bushels; Flour, 8,594 barrels.

Since our last weekly review we have had a succession of dull markets reported both from the East and from Europe. Notwithstanding this however, with the single exception of Flour, our breadstuffs markets have been buoyant and active.

The Flour market has been very much depressed, and holders have had to submit to a decline during the week of 25@50c per barrel. There has been little or no demand for choice brands of either Spring or Winter Wheat Flour, and these have been a drug on the market. Nearly all that has been sold has been for Canadian markets, and has been shipped to Montreal by the Collingwood propellers.

Wheat has been more active, and advanced 5@6c since our last weekly review. This reaction was caused by a large number of "short sellers" appearing on the market, as well as an approved speculative feeling—consequent upon an easier money market.

The Corn market has been more quiet, but prices have been sustained, and in most instances an advance of 1@2c on the figures of the previous week have been established. The receipts of corn have also been much lighter than those of the week previous. The stock on hand last Saturday was 116,724 bushels.

The Oats market has been without any visible change, the transactions being very limited—hardly sufficient to establish quotations. The shipments during the past week have been partly to St. Louis and partly to Buffalo. The stock on hand is 126,505 bushels.

The Barley market, under advices from the East, has been dull and heavy, and holders to accomplish sales have had to submit to a decline.

The Provision markets during the week have been quite stagnant. Beef packers are now under full headway, killing and packing about 1,500 beeves daily. Nearly all the stock, however, is being shipped to the East as soon as barrelled. A sale of 500 barrels of Beef Hams was made at $14; and to-day we hear of 1,000 barrels of Beef being sold at $8, $9 and $10. Pork packers are making all the preparations necessary for a heavy business this winter; but we hear of no contracts for future delivery. The old stock of Mess Pork is almost entirely exhausted, and there is none in market except ice-packed.

There has been a very active request during the week for Timothy Seed, and prices have advanced 5@6c per bushel.

The following table shows the highest and the lowest prices of produce, &c., during the week, with the closing figures:

PRICES OF PRODUCE, ETC., DURING THE WEEK.

The Muscatine Journal of the 13th, says that the slaughtering and packing of three hundred head of Texan cattle was commenced at Leland & Co.'s pork-house on the day previous. The packing is done on the account of the drovers, who had expected to send the cattle forward to Chicago by railroad, but failed to make as advantageous an arrangement as they desired.

The St. Louis Republican of yesterday says, with regard to Hogs:

> Contracts are now reported for delivery on the Upper Mississippi, below the rapids, and on the Illinois at $4 25@4.75 per 100 lbs, generally at an intermediate figure. In this way a sale of 3,000 head was made yesterday, delivered by December 1st, below the rapids, at $4 50. City packers have not yet announced any engagements for lots deliverable here.

Review of the Chicago Dry Goods Market.

TUESDAY EVENING, Oct. 19.

The wholesale Dry Goods houses in the city have now laid in their winter stocks. They are not as heavy as was anticipated; but will prove quite equal to the demand. Our merchants are exercising great caution in their transactions with the country west, south and north of us this fall. The country dealers have not come up as promptly as was desired, with their payments, on account of the partial failure of the crops; and those who have not paid their matured paper find considerable difficulty in making purchases without the cash. On the whole, however, a good healthy business is being done.

The principal demand is for domestic goods, such as Prints, Sheetings, Stripes, Checks, &c. In Hosiery, Gloves, &c., there is also a fair demand. In Satinettes and fancy Cassimeres, our wholesale merchants are doing more than an average business with the interior—there being less call for ready made clothing, and more for piece goods to make up at home.

The following are the ruling quotations for domestic goods—Prints, 8½@10c; Stripes, 9@14c; Checks, 10@15c; Delaines, 15@22; Brown Sheetings, 6@9c; Bleached Sheetings, 6@15c; Denims, 10@14c.

Weekly Review of the Chicago Lumber Market.

The receipts of Lumber by lake are slacking off, there having arrived during the past week 59 vessels, the cargoes of which foot up nearly two millions of feet less than were received in the previous week, while the receipts of Shingles are two millions more than have been landed here in any of several weeks preceding. The figures are given comparatively in the table, showing that the shipments by canal have greatly decreased. To the receipts of Shingles by lake should be added 51,000 received in the course of the week by Michigan Central Railroad.

The market during the week has not been so active, although the prices obtained have been fully as good as we have had occasion recently to report. There have been some boisterous, rainy weather, which would cut up roads and cause a falling off in country orders; but it now looks as if the heft of the country and the canal and river lumber trade were over, and a corresponding dullness will of course be the result. The low price of wheat will prevent farmers from making many of the improvements they had contemplated, and that operates seriously against the country dealers both in Illinois and elsewhere. A city dealer informs us that he has bought about 65,000 feet of good dry stuff, to close out a concern at a lake town in Wisconsin, for which he paid $10 for 3d clear, $16 for 2d clear, and $21.50 for 1st clear. The quotations are as before, except Shingles, which we set down at $2.50@3.25:

First Clear Dry	$30.00@32.00
Second Clear dry	25.00@26.00
Third Clear dry	16.00@18.00
Common Boards, Green	7.00@ 8.00
do do Dry	8.00@
Clear Flooring	26.00@
Common Flooring, Dressed	18.00@
Siding, Clear Dressed	12.00@
Fencing	7.00@ 9.00
Short Studs and Joists	7.00@ 9.00
Shingles, ₩ M	2.50@ 3.25
Lath, ₩ M	1.25@
Posts (common to good) ₩ 100	6.00@10.00

There has been quite a flurry in the Shingle market within the past ten or twelve days. The Secretary of the Treasury has, on appeal, decided that Shaved Shingles being manufactured by other process than hewing or sawing, are not embraced in timber and lumber admitted free under the reciprocity treaty with Great Britain, but subject to a duty of 24 per cent. This is not likely to have any effect on the market here. Good ones have been quite scarce for some time, though now it will be seen from our figures below the stock on hand has been largely increased. Shaved ones, which inspect A, have been bringing $3.12@3.25 ₩ M at the yards, and are quoted for the present, firm at the latter figures. We note a cargo sale at $3, and another is reported $2 60 for 50 000 A shaved; the market price for that quality is somewhere between these prices. It would appear almost impossible at present to assign a fixed value to Shingles, for we hear of a buyer getting an A No. 1 article of sawed for $1.75 ₩ M by the cargo, while about that time another paid $2.25 for the same brand.

Cargo prices are a shade lower. During the month rates have been, for round cargoes, $5 75@7.10, cash, most of the sales being at $7 and $7.25 for strips and boards. The average prices in October of the three preceding years were:

$12.25@16.75	$12.00@15.75	$7.75@10.00

The following are a few of the sales of the week. Many of the loads came in on old contract, and some were yarded on manufacturers' account.

SALES OF CARGOES.

Schr Belle, Manitowoc, cargo consisting of half and half strips and boards, $5.75 cash.

Schr Pilgrim, Green Bay, the mill run, $7. cash.

Schr Ramsay Crook, Green Bay, the mill run, $6.50 cash.

Schr Transit, Manitowoc, cargo of A shaved shingles, $3 per M.

Schr Helen Kent, White Lake, culls $4 00, common boards, $7, cash.

Schr M. F. Johnson, Saginaw, culls $4, common $7, 2d clear $15, 1st clear $20 cash.

We hear, also, of a cargo to arrive from Muskegon, one-half strips and balance boards and scantling, $7, cash; and two cargoes, on the way, supposed to be mainly strips, $7.50.

In the subjoined table, the comparative shipments by canal are more fully given than hitherto; they indicate a large decrease both for the week and season:

Chicago Daily Live Stock Market.

TUESDAY, EVENING, Oct. 19.

The receipts at Sherman's Yards to-day were very large—the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railway alone brought in 32 cars Cattle and 1 car Hogs, while they left behind about 30 cars more. The receipts by the other roads were also liberal.

BEEVES—The market for Beef Cattle yesterday was active, and prices were a shade better. The packers are all now under full headway, and their requirements amount to about 1,500 head per day. The range of prices yesterday at Sherman's Yards, was, $1.50@2.62½ per 100 lbs gross. To-day the disagreeable weather put a stop to transactions, and the only sale reported was 150 head sold to a packer at the Bull's Head at $2.00@2.25 ₩ 100 lbs gross weight.

HOGS—The large receipts, as well as the withdrawal of shippers, has rendered the market heavy, except for choice lots, which are eagerly picked up by packers. The range of prices at yesterday and to-day's market is $3 70 @4.30 ₩ 100 lbs gross—the latter figure being given for a lot sold by C. S. Dole & Co., averaging 291 lbs.

SHEEP—Good mutton Sheep in fine request at $2.50@3.00 ₩ 100 lbs gross. A lot sold yesterday—averaging 95 lbs at—$2.75.
